

MURDERER MAKES A GENERAL DENIAL*H. H. HOLMES INTERVIEWED IN PRISON.

Plausible Story to Account For the Presence of the Bones in His Cellar at Chicago—Again Declares That Peitzel Committed Suicide and Was Not Murdered.

Philadelphia, Aug. 2.—H. H. Holmes, alias Mudgett, alias Howard, the arch conspirator and accused murderer, was interviewed by a representative of a Chicago newspaper in his cell in Moyamensing prison yesterday. The prisoner, contrary to all former statements, does not appear to be weakening. On the contrary, he was in an exceedingly cheery mood for one who has so long been incarcerated and charged with so many heinous crimes. In the interview Holmes gives a plausible excuse for the finding of the bones in his late Chicago home. Minnie Williams, he says, was his best friend. He declares he was only once legally married and makes the statement that he is worth in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Owing to the action of the prison authorities in not allowing the reporter to remain over five minutes with the condemned man, it was necessary to communicate with the convict in writing. The following are the questions put to the prisoner and his answers:

"Can you explain how so many bones came to be concealed in the basement and other parts of your Chicago house?"

"I will answer that question in this way: Every person who has known me is aware that I am a doctor by profession. It is also known perfectly well in Chicago that there was a restaurant in my building, 701 Wallace street, during the world's fair. At that time there were lots of bones from fowls and other cooked animals thrown outside the building. Lots of these bones, no doubt, found their way to the cellar. During the time I lived in the building I brought several cadavers there, both for scientific and pecuniary purposes. This may account for the bones the Chicago police say they have found."

"Pat Quinlan, your former janitor, is supposed to have been a conspirator with you in murder. What have you to say to this charge?"

"I regard Quinlan in the light of being persecuted. I pity his unfortunate position. The treatment of Pat is unjust. He has nothing to confess. This I declare positively."

"Is it true that Minnie Williams killed her sister Nana?"

"Yes, it all came about over a jealous quarrel during the heat of passion, in which poor Minnie threw a stool at Nana. It struck her on the head. She died shortly afterward."

"What do you think of the recent finding of the bodies of Alice and Nellie Peitzel at Toronto?"

"I do not know that they are the bodies of the children. As I have said before, they may or may not be. I can prove at the proper time that they left my hands safely. I gave them into the charge of Ed. Hatch. The children and Hatch left me at Toronto. I never saw them again."

"Howard Peitzel is missing, the authorities say, since he was last seen with you. Do you know where the child is?"

"If the boy has met with foul play his body, I believe, can be found somewhere between Detroit and Indianapolis. Possibly at Logansport, Ind. I left Howard Peitzel in the charge of Ed. Hatch on or about Oct. 10 last. This was at Indianapolis. I was called to Chicago on important business. I can show that I was in Chicago until the afternoon of the 11th. By prior arrangement I met Hatch in Detroit the night of the 11th. I met him at the depot. But the boy was not with him. I inquired where the child was and Hatch told me that he had left Howard with Minnie Williams. I thought the child was safe."

"Do you still persist in declaring that you did not kill Benjamin Peitzel?"

"I have said emphatically before, and again declare, that Peitzel took his own life. I believe I have convinced the district attorney here that I am innocent."

"Have you any choice as to the place you would care to be tried if you were brought to answer the charge of murder?"

"None whatever. The Philadelphia authorities don't seem confident enough to try me here. The Canadians apparently don't care to blow in any money on me. So I suppose my energetic Chicago friends will come to my rescue if I am brought into the courts there."

GEYER FINDS A CLEW.

Holmes' Efforts in Indianapolis to Rent a "Room with a Side Door."

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—Detective Geyer has found something at last to assure him that his theory of the murder of Howard Peitzel is tenable. When Holmes came to this city with the three Peitzel children he registered them at English's hotel, but he did not stop there himself. Where he did stop is the question, the answer to which is one link in the problem that Detective Geyer is trying to solve. He has found that while in this city Holmes was intimate with a prominent business man of this city. To this man Holmes went and asked to be allowed to occupy a room. He wanted a room that he could gain access to by a side door and he wanted to have the key to the side door in his own possession. He did not get the room. Geyer says that he is sure Holmes was anxious to dispose of Howard Peitzel, and he has learned that Holmes rented a house in St. Louis, put in a big furnace, and took Howard there, but was prevented from carrying out his plans by the prying of inquisitive neighbors. He is sure that if he finds a house that was rented by Holmes he will find that Holmes put in a large stove and had natural gas connected with it, and that there will be found some evidence that Howard Peitzel met a tragic death in this city.

BOWLER WRECKS A TRAIN.

Narrow Escape for Two Hundred Passengers in Colorado.

Wolcott, Col., Aug. 2.—Two hundred passengers, including two railroad presidents, had a narrow escape from death yesterday on the Rio Grande road. Train No. 2, east-bound, containing baggage, express, mail, four coaches and the coach of President Dodge of the Rio Grande and Western, when half a mile west of this place struck an immense boulder. The engineer saw it when not over 200 feet away. He reversed and told the fireman to jump. They escaped. The engine struck the rock and turned a somersault into Eagle river down a fifty-foot cliff. The balance of the train was stopped by the air brakes owing to the steep grade. The boulder had fallen from the face of the cliff hundreds of feet above. President Jeffery of the Rio Grande passed the spot in his private car twenty minutes before.

Wants Damages from Hawaii.

Honolulu, July 26, via San Francisco, Aug. 2.—The first claim for damages against the government for wholesale arrests during the January revolt is in the hands of Minister Hatch. The claimant is James Durrell, an American citizen. He was arrested and confined about seven weeks. No charge was made against him. He was simply held on suspicion. He filed a claim for $25,000 damages with the American minister, which was duly forwarded to the state department. It is believed this matter will lead to international complications, as it is understood that this government does not intend to pay Durrell one dollar.

Illinois Flag Law Denounced.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 2.—The conference of the Lutheran teachers of the Northwest, the first representative body of Lutherans which has met since the passage of the so-called flag law of Illinois, took action yesterday respecting it, adopting a resolution reported by a committee. It was adopted by a unanimous vote.

In the second heat Patchen went to the front and won, as he did in the remaining two heats, with ease, although Geers did his utmost to urge Robert J. to the front, using the whip without stint. Time, 2:05 1/4, 2:04 1/4, 2:05, 2:05 1/4.

Populists of Ohio Meet.

Columbus, O., Aug. 2.—The populist state convention met here yesterday. No nominations were made. As the committee on resolutions was unable to agree on a platform until late at night the time was occupied mostly with speeches. Gen. J. S. Coxey, who will probably be nominated for governor, made a speech before the convention and he also addressed an open-air meeting at night. The committee on resolutions finally indorsed the non-interest bond scheme. The other planks of the platform are a reiteration of the Omaha platform.

UNCLE SAM'S TROOPS MEET NO INDIANS*SOLDIERS ARRIVE AT JACKSON'S HOLE.

Not the Slightest Sign of an Outbreak Again at the Settlers—Troops Designate the Campaign as an "Amusing Farce"—Reports From Washington.

Market Lake, Idaho, Aug. 2.—Gen. Coppinger's command crossed the Teton range Wednesday, going into camp on Fish creek, in the Snake river valley, ten miles from Marysville. The latter point was reached yesterday. The campaign against the Indians is becoming as one of the officers high in command expressed it, "an amusing farce." The settlers in the valley of Jackson's Hole are still living at the fortifications established near Marysville. A number, however, have returned to their ranches.

Scouts who have been out in the mountains south of Marysville for five days returned to-day and report no signs of Indians. The first settler who met the troops in Jackson's Hole informed the commanding officer that he had not seen an Indian for a year. He lives in a lonely defile on the extreme northern edge of the valley with his wife and children, and refused to join the other settlers in their fortified camp.

Two hunters came into camp who had been driving for the past ten days in the Indian country, traveling from the head of Wind river, northwest of Fort Washakie, to the head of the Buffalo fork of Snake river, then to Union Pass and to the head of the Gros Ventre river through the country east and north of Jackson's Hole. This is a stretch of several hundred miles, and they met no Indians, nor did they see signs of any. In the Gros Ventre mountains and along Gros Ventre river they met scouting parties from Jackson's Hole hunting for Indians and finding none.

The command met a 15-year-old boy carrying the mail of the Jackson's Hole country over the Teton mountain to Market Lake. He had seen a week ago two Indians, unarmed, getting out of the country as fast as possible. These were the remaining members of the band arrested for killing game, who escaped from the guards.

Gen. Coppinger's command moved to Marysville yesterday, where a conference was held with the settlers. Indian scouts in the command will be sent out into the mountains, and if any Indians are found Agent Teter of the Fort Hall agency will hold a conference with them, with a view of having them return to the agency.

Unless more startling news is heard soon the 8th infantry will halt in the Teton basin. Settlers who went out of Jackson's Hole last week are returning, a number of them coming in ahead of the troops.

The present campaign against Indians, in which five companies of the 8th United States infantry and four troops of the 9th cavalry are engaged, promises to be the most memorable of the Indian campaigns in the history of the country, for as the seat of the reported trouble is neared it becomes more and more evident that there are no Indians to be fought, and there is not a man in the expedition who expects to hear a hostile gun fired.

Market Lake, Idaho, Aug. 2.—A courier in from Rexburg says two white men were killed by Indians Wednesday on Trail Creek, this side of Jackson's Hole. The mail carrier between Jackson's Hole and Teton Pass is thought to have been killed by Indians. When last seen he was crossing Teton divide. The rumor of the killing is not believed here.

CUBAN INSURGENTS GET THREE TOWNS*REBEL FORCES MAKE IMPORTANT CONQUESTS.

Cities of Baire, Jiguani and Guantanamo in the Hands of the Insurgents—More Troops To Be Sent From Spain—A Spanish Opinion on the War.

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 2.—The latest news from Cuba is that Baire, Jiguani and Guantanamo have been captured by the insurgents.

General Salcedo has been returned to Spain for having shot some war prisoners when Maceo had cared for some Spanish prisoners until they were all well and had returned them to Salcedo.

The issue of La Discusion was suppressed Tuesday for publishing the capture of Baire by the insurgents.

Six hundred insurgents have appeared in Amarillas, 300 in Taguaramar, 400 in Cumanagua, and 200 in Bananguives, all in the province to Matanzas.

The people in Camaguez have informed General Gomez that if he goes to Las Villas they want Maceo to command them.

Martinez Campos sent a cable to Spain Tuesday informing Canovas that the island was untenable any longer. The answer was, 20,000 soldiers will be sent in August.

A SPANISH OPINION.

Rebellion Will Be Put Down in the Autumn.

Madrid, Aug. 2.—Count Monterra, chief of the Cuban Reform party, in an interview upon the state of affairs in the island of Cuba, said that operations against the insurgents would be commenced in earnest early in the autumn and that before winter set in the rebellion would be over. The insurgents, he added, are short of ammunition and the leaders lack prestige. The principal thing to do, in the opinion of Count Monterra, is to watch the coast, in order to prevent outside help from reaching the insurgents. In conclusion, he said that public opinion in the interior of Cuba is opposed to the insurrection and that this feeling is increasing in strength.

Report Insurgent Defeats.

Havana, Aug. 2.—Captain Guaradada, at the head of a detachment of marine infantry, at midnight met an insurgent band, consisting of twenty-five men, headed by Reyes, on a farm belonging to Guerrero Macagana, near Matanzas. During the skirmish which followed the insurgents lost one man killed and had several wounded. The guerrilla forces of the district are pursuing the band.

Lieutenant Calleja, with five volunteers, who is at San Juan de las Veras, in the province of Santa Clara, was making a reconnaissance, when he met twenty-two insurgents near San Babo. The insurgents were dislodged from their positions and were dispersed leaving one of their number dead and carrying away five wounded.

Daring Scheme to Aid Cuba.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 2.—At a secret meeting of Cuban sympathizers in this city, at which a number of the most prominent leaders of the movement were present, a daring project was revealed. It was nothing less than a plan to steal the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius, from the League Island Navy Yard, man her with a picked crew, and send her to Havana to lay Morrow Castle in ruins, and seal the fate of Spanish dominion in the gem of the Antilles.

NICHOLSON LAW VOID.

Important Ruling of an Indiana Circuit Court Judge.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 2.—Judge Taylor of the circuit court yesterday decided that the section of the new Nicholson saloon law restricting the liquor business and providing reader methods of prosecution of the violators of the law of 1875, which prescribes the hours of selling, etc., is inoperative. The court declined to consider the question of the constitutionality of the law on the ground that it was unnecessary. Nor did the court touch upon section 9, the local option section. The latter cannot be tested until after the September meeting of the county boards of commissioners when licenses are to be granted.

Panic in a Wisconsin Opera House.

Fennimore, Wis., Aug. 2.—Six hundred persons completely filled the opera house here Wednesday night to listen to a lecture under the auspices of the United Brethren church. Toward the close of the program a tableau was to be presented, necessitating the lowering of the large hall lamps. By some mishap one of them fell out of the bracket among the audience. It exploded, starting a blaze that filled the room with smoke. A panic ensued, and many persons, including women, jumped from the windows, but luckily no serious injuries are reported. The fire was soon extinguished.

Tries to Poison Children.

Amsden, O., Aug. 2.—Emma Dyer, aged 14, was arrested on the charge of trying to poison the two children of Henry Shifey. She placed arsenic and parsnips on apples and gave them to the children. Their mother happened to witness the act and took the apples to a physician, who said they contained poison enough to kill two adults. The girl made a partial confession before her arrest, but failed to assign a cause for the attempted poisoning.

Mrs. Hetty Green After a Railroad.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 2.—E. R. H. Green of Terrell, Tex., is here in connection with the sale of the Little Rock & Memphis railway, to occur in October. He has an idea of buying the road, with a view of extending it to Paris, Tex., to connect there with the Texas Midland. Mr. Green is the son of Mrs. Hetty Green.

ADJOURNED TO-DAY.

Illinois Legislature Session to Be Brought to an End.

Springfield, Aug. 2.—Colonel Jonathan Merriam yesterday offered a resolution citing the publisher of the Times-Herald and Post, Gov. Altgeld, and such other persons as claimed to have knowledge of corruption and boudling in the legislature to appear before the Sangamon county grand jury or any other grand jury having jurisdiction and tell what they knew. The resolution was not considered. The senate tax-levy bill was advanced to the order of third reading without amendment. It provides for an increase of the tax levy of $1,000,000 during the next two years. The revenue bill was then taken up and discussed. The house conference committee brought in a report regarding the senate amendments to the arbitration bill. A heated debate followed. After a long wrangle the amendments were adopted and the arbitration bill passed by a vote of 125 yeas, nays none.

Most of the senate's session was taken up in a bitter debate upon a motion to appoint a committee of conference on the house arbitration bill. After a long debate a committee was appointed by the vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 6. The house libel bill came up on second reading, and was made a special order for to-day immediately after the reading of the journal. The republican senators held a caucus immediately after the session and adopted a resolution offered by Dwyer to take an adjournment until Saturday, Aug. 3.

In the house Mr. Bryan asked unanimous consent to introduce a resolution fixing a date of sine die adjournment. There were no objections and the resolution was read as follows: "Resolved, By the house of representatives, the senate concurring therein, that the special session of the XXXIXth general assembly adjourn Friday, Aug. 2, without day."

The speaker hurriedly put the question of the adoption of the resolution. As he did so the democrats almost as one man rose to their feet and excitedly demanded the yeas and nays. They were joined by a few republicans, but the speaker took no notice of them and declared the resolution adopted. Speaker Cochran then recognized Mr. Butler, who made a motion to reconsider the action of the house in rejecting the amendment to the tax-levy bill reciting the shortcomings of the XXXVIIIth general assembly. Mr. Lowenthal moved to lay this motion on the table and it prevailed. Mr. Berry moved that the house now adjourn. Amid the wildest disorder the motion was declared carried, and the house stood adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

Many members who are dissatisfied with the way in which Speaker Cochran forced the adjournment resolution through declare that they will not vote for the tax-levy bill. If enough members unite in this action to defeat the bill a second extra session is practically assured.

BRAZIL WILL FIGHT.

Island of Trinidad Not to Be Given Up Peaceably.

New York, Aug. 2.—Fontura Xavier, the Brazilian consul-general in this city, believes that the island of Trinidad, which was recently taken possession of by the British, will be regained by Brazil. He said the Brazilian government was making every effort to settle the difficulty by diplomacy but if these means fail he believes Brazil will try to take the island by force of arms. "My country's navy cannot, of course, compare in strength with that of Great Britain," Mr. Xavier said, "but our citizens are determined to assert their rights and have no fear of England."

When asked what position he thought the United States would take in case of war Mr. Xavier declared that it could not remain neutral without violating the Monroe doctrine and that, he thought, the administration would be unwilling to do.

BIG FIRE AT BROOKLYN.

Explosion on a Ship Sets Fire to the Dock—Barges Destroyed.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 2.—While the ship Cairnchill, from Calcutta, was unloading her cargo of jute and saltpetre at Bait's stores, Erie basin, yesterday, an explosion occurred, which set fire to the dock. The warehouse, a structure about 250 yards long, which was filled with jute, cotton, hemp and saltpetre, was destroyed. The Cairnchill, which was burning, was towed to the flats near Liberty Island, and it may be necessary to sink her there to prevent her total destruction by fire. The loss on the warehouse and contents is estimated at from $120,000 to $130,000. The lighters Captain Burdock, Walter Klotz and a New York Central barge, all loaded with cotton, were completely destroyed.

Six Durrant Case Jurors Secured.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 2.—A fifth juror was secured at the forenoon session of the superior court yesterday where Theodore Durrant is being tried for the murder of Blanche Lamont. At the afternoon session, when thirty talesmen had been excused, C. P. Nathan was accepted by both sides and sworn in as a sixth juror. The case then went over until Monday. As the trial progresses interest in the case seems to lag. The crowd of morbidly curious people who have assembled at the courtroom day after day is growing less.

Taylor Trial Arguments.

Corrington, Mo., Aug. 2.—Counsel for each side began arguments before the jury in the Taylor murder trial yesterday. Each side was given seven hours. Arguments will be concluded this morning and the case given to the jury in the afternoon.

LAST EVENING.

Pretty Dancing and Effective Tableaux Won the Applause of a Large Audience—Names of the Young People Who Took Part in the Various Evolutions.

As American history it might have seemed fragmentary.

But as a picture it was the biggest kind of a success.

Bobogyan girls in white danced and circled; then bowed and courted as a be-spangled quartette went through the gavotte. Tiny fairies in silver starred crosses frolicked about the May-pole. Tennis players, fourteen strong, swung jangling rackets in time to music, and were succeeded on the stage by a line of little tots in long black dresses who showed life in the nursery. China and Japan sent delegations with utter disregard for historical accuracy, but with pleasing artistic effect, and a Spanish castanet dance by Miss Hattie Slightam told of the joy in Ferdinand and Isabella's court over America's discovery. The audience were also glad "America" had been discovered, and tossed flowers at Miss Slightam, besides giving her an encore.

The scarf drill, the dance of the Hollanders and the march of the Amazons, ended the programme the Indian dance, the Japanese lantern drill and the minuet being omitted until tonight because of the late hour. However, there were tableaux—"Landing of Columbus," "Columbus' Return to Spain," "Camp Scene," "Hospital Scene" and the grand finale, "America." During the camp scene E. O. Kimberley sang "Tenting Tonight," and in the Maypole tableau there was a song by little Fairy Reynolds, all of fairyland joining in the chorus.

There was hardly a seat in the opera house vacant last evening, and the hearty applause spoke volumes for Professor McDaniels' work. Tonight there will be a change of program and a full house is probable, with substantial benefit to the Woman's Relief Corps of W. H. Sargent Post. The names of the cast follow:

Joe Patchen, who, since his fine exhibition mile here has carried the sympathies of Janesville people with him, did what many of his most enthusiastic admirers insisted he could not do, yesterday when he defeated Robert J. the champion pacer and won the big $3,000 free for all at Cleveland. In the race were Robert J., the champions Saladin, the former champion, Directly, the four-year-old champion and Mascot, the game "old timer." Robert won the first heat in 2:05 1/2 but after that Joe Patchen had the speed to win out, going in 2:04 1/2, 2:05 and 2:05 1/2. It was the most sensational race ever paced in the United States.

Klamath, whose fast mile here lowered the track trotting record defeated the 2:11 field at Cleveland, beating Lessa Wilkes, William Penn, Nightengale and half a dozen other cracks, the best time being 2:09.

Most of the horses that raced here last month are now at Joliet. Jimmie Hagye who won here in the 2:28 trotting class got the money in his race yesterday while Fido, who won the Janesville 2:10 pacing class purse got two heats and Vera Capelle won two heats, defeating Frank Agan, Rocky P. Tom Ogden, Rocker and Afrite, the best time being 2:07 1/2 and the slowest 2:07 1/2. The race then went over. Vera Capelle's mile in 2:07 1/2 cut her record four seconds, and was something of a surprise for her friends. The race it will be seen, was composed of about the same field that met here. It was Afrite's first start in the free-for-all class, and although he had paced in 2:08 1/2 here, he was distanced in the second heat.

REAL ESTATE PROSPECTS BETTER

Local Market Has Been Dull But the Outlook is Improving.

Local real estate has been a trifle dull this summer, and even now dealers are not really rushed to death. Several good sales have been made of lots, however, and agents report a fair demand for outlying property. "There is no reason," said a dealer today, "why those outside districts, which have recently been benefited by water mains and electric light extensions and which already have street car service should not be desirable home sites. Most of the lots in these districts bought within the last three years, were taken as investments and are still held on speculation, the owners waiting for other property to be improved. Indications are now given for more solid development. I think we will see street railway extensions before long, too, and altogether fall prospects strike me as very good."

STRONG BRIDGE WHEN FINISHED

Contractors Say the Jackson Street span Will Be Finished Next Week.

Contractors Stewart & Cullen expect to have the Jackson street bridge finished by the end of next week. The pile driver is kept going from morning till late at night. There will be five rows of piles where but three served before and the structure will be stronger in every way.

Must be on account of confidence of people in our goods and prices. The Henney, our principal make, hardly needs mention as to its grade; it recommends itself. Our repository is full of bargains in buggies. Don't fail to call on us. F. A. Taylor.

BIG WARTY SERPENT
LIVES AT MAGNOLIA

LAND MONSTER COMMITS DEFECATIONS O'NIGHTS.

Wiggles Over the Farms Leaving a Four-Inch Trail and Makes its Home in a Deserted Log House On Thomas Grady's Place—Searching Parties Will Raze the Structure.

A 15x13 snake worms its way about Magnolia township o' nights, leaving a trail that looks like a deflated tire bicycle track when a 400 pound man is in the saddle. Turkeys go down the serpent's gullet without a gasp, and stock and children flee in terror when they hear its tail thrashing about in the bushes.

Magnolia is a good township. It gave the city of Janesville her chief of police. Tally one for Magnolia as a producer of policemen, and tally two for it as a producer of prize wigglers with heads like bull pups. George H. Rumrill, the well known tobacco man, brought news of the snake to Janesville. He stopped at the farm house of Thomas Grady in Magnolia. Mr. Grady and his family were all home at the time, but were too much excited to talk tobacco. There had been an annual visit of the monster snake.

Lives in a Log House.

There is situated upon the Grady farm an old log house, which was built by early settlers. The cellar is damp and clammy, and the holes about its sides are a perfect paradise for reptiles. For a number of years the cabin has been known to be a resort for crawlers of immense size. One was killed in 1888 measuring seven feet in length but this was not a circumstarce to the big snake that remains. Nobody cares to explore the old log house, but people who have caught glimpses of its occupant tell astonishing stories. They describe a monster of great size and have a theory that this size has been attained on one meal a year. Once a year Mr. Grady misses a good share of his spring chickens and young turkeys and the tracks of the monster lead to the hen house.

While Mr. Rumrill was there a number of men, were closely examining a large track which was made during the night and led direct from the hen yard to the old log house.

Trail Was a Wide One.

The trail looked as though a wide tired bicycle had been run across the dust and closer examination showed small dents as if made by rudimentary legs.

Three years ago a little girl came screaming into the house saying that she had seen the monster and she described it as being "fat, black and crawling." A party of Evansville men are organizing for the purpose of making an investigation and will begin tearing down the old log house, with the hope of capturing the monster and selling it to a circus. One man who claims to have seen the big twister, says that it was at least fifteen feet long and was as big around as the beer keg on which the narrator sustained himself. He said that it had bony ridges over its eyes, a long, forked tongue, and a spike in the end of its tail. He thought it was a second growth oak tree, with numerous warts on its stomach, until he stepped on the small end of it. Then it writhed through the woods, making a noise like a farm hand grubbing underbrush with a threshing engine on the up grade road, parallel with the forest.

All joking aside, Magnolia has a big snake, and if you don't believe it, ask Mr. Grady or the bustling tobacco men. Neither of them are drinking men.

SIX O'CLOCK.
WEARY WOMEN WATCH FOR THAT BLESSED HOUR.

Help for our Working-Girls and Women Near at Hand.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

The stroke of six ends the day's work at stores, offices, factories, mills, where women are employed. But their necessary work at home, sewing, mending, etc., must be done after that time, and "their work is never done."

All women work; some for ambition, some for economy in the household, but the great mass of women work for their daily bread. All are subject to the same physical laws; all suffer alike from the same physical disturbances, and the nature of their duties often quickly drifts them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, ovarian troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, leucorrhoea, and perhaps irregular or suppressed "monthly periods," causing severe backache, loss of appetite, nervousness, irritability and weakness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for all these troubles. It strengthens the proper muscles, and cures displacement.

Backache, dizziness, fainting, bearing-down, disordered stomach, moodiness, dislike of friends and society—all symptoms of the one cause—will be quickly dispelled. Write Mrs. Pinkham about your trouble.

You can tell the story of your pain to a woman, and get the help that only woman can give. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

AMERICAN MACHINERY.

European Manufacturers Already Find It Best to Use It Largely.

Continued reports are received in this country of the large opportunities for the introduction of American machinery and the investment of American capital which are offered by the peace agreement entered into between China and Japan. A provision is made that China shall hereafter be open for the introduction of all forms of modern machinery, and that such machinery shall be admitted free of duty. The Emperor of China has heretofore strictly prohibited the introduction of modern machinery, as the result of which the Chinese are to-day using wooden plows similar to those made centuries ago. May it not be possible that American shoe machinery will find its way into the Celestial Empire? And it is beyond the comprehension of the ordinary individual to estimate as to what is likely to be the result. It is said that the mill manufacturers in England are beginning to be alarmed by the transmission of cotton manufacture from Europe to Asia. The great trouble seems to be that there is no means by which England or America can meet the competition which is likely to come from Asia as the extension of knowledge and civilization goes on, for the Asiatics, when they once learn to operate the improved machinery which they will now be permitted to employ, will have such an abundance of labor available as to appall ordinary comprehension. Think of four hundred millions of Chinese and three hundred millions of Hindoos who have been accustomed to work for ten cents a day and less! As Matthew Marshall said recently: "These people will constitute a new mine of human labor as extensive and valuable as were the fertile lands of America when it was first discovered or the gold fields of California and Australia." This may be all right for those who will utilize the labor, but how about the Americans and Europeans with whom they will compete in products?

THE SUMMER GIRL.

"A Little Tan, a Callous Heart, New Slang," Is What She Shows.

It is safe to allege that the average summer girl in this country has been doing all she ought to do in the way of dancing, prancing, gadding, going, working, and generally spending her vital powers in the autumn, winter and spring immediately preceding, and consequently when summer comes needs, quite as much as her parents, physical, mental and moral ozone.

But what does she prefer to do? Whether is she bent on leading her father by the nose with the assistance of her mother? To various places, according to her special predilection, and the farthest limit of the parental purse. If possible, to one of the gayest watering places, where she hopes to bathe, play tennis, walk, talk and drive during the day; paddle, stroll or sit out during the evening and dance until 12 o'clock at night two or three times a week. Else to some much advertised mountain cataract or lake resort, to lead a stagnant hotel corridor and piazza life, in the fond hope of seeing the vividly imagined Him alight from the stage coach some Saturday night. Meanwhile she is one of three-score forlorn girls who haunt the office and make eyes at the hotel clerk. The summer girl has a mania for the summer hotel. It seems to open to her radiant possibilities. She kindles at the mention of a hop in August, and if she is musical the tinkle of her piano-playing reverberates through the house all day until the other boarders are driven nearly crazy.

And so it goes all summer. When autumn comes and the leaf is about to fall and Dorothy returns to town, what has she to show for it? A little tan and callous heart, a promised winter correspondence with the hotel clerk, new slang, some knack at banjo-playing, and considerable uncertainty in her mind as to whom she is engaged to, or whether she is engaged at all.

The Poor Bishop.
A well-known bishop, who takes a prominent interest in everything affecting the working classes, wishing to judge for himself what a journey in a workman's carriage was like, took a ticket and joined the miscellaneous crowd who fill these trains on the Great Eastern Railway, says a London paper. After a most undignified struggle for a seat he found himself jammed in between a navy, smoking a strong black pipe, on his right, and an artist in house painting, smelling strongly of his craft, and carefully balancing a can of green paint, on his left hand. In addition to apprehensions for the safe balance of this can and the very unpleasant odors arising, the good bishop was much shocked by the bad language which garnished the conversation of his neighbors. After a particularly strong expression from the navy, the bishop, touching him gently, inquired: "My good man, please tell me where you learn the language you have just made use of?"

The navy replied, with a suspicion of pride in his tone: "Learn it, governor! You can't learn it. It's a gift—that's wot it is!"

The Smallest Woman.
It is thought that the smallest living woman is Miss Isabella Pinder, of Spanish Wells, on the Bahama Islands. She is 35 years of age, 36 inches tall, and weighs less than 50 pounds. She is said to be perfectly formed. She is now visiting her cousin, "General" Abe Sawyer, who is 31 years old, 41 inches tall and weighs 55 pounds.

Happy the man who sees a God employed in all the good and ill that checker life! —Cowper.

"PRACTICAL" POLITICS.

West Superior mayor, Charles S. Starkweather, has been impeached for extortion by a vote of 17 to 1.

Mr. Starkweather has been before the public much since he located in Superior. He built a $15,000 church for his charge and had in contemplation a club house for young men, with billiard tables, smoking room, cards, gymnasium, free baths and other inducements. He was elected to office on the populist ticket owing to dissatisfaction in the republican ranks with their nominee.

The mayor had not been in office more than a week before ugly stories began to be circulated. It was charged that a levy had been made on all officers appointed, for the benefit of the mayor. It was also alleged that he had made arrangements with the gamblers and saloon men to allow them to violate the law, on the payment of certain sums of money weekly. These rumors finally culminated in open charges being made in the newspapers. They were brought to the attention of the council and an investigation was ordered.

The outcome is not what was expected. Ministers in political life fall usually through their tendency to leave "practical" politics wholly out of account. Mr. Starkweather seems to have gone to the other extreme.

WILL CUBA WIN?

Very little credence can be given to the advices from Cuba, but there appears to be no reason to doubt that the insurrection is very formidable and that the chances favoring its success are increasing. This much is to be safely inferred from the fact that the Spanish government is putting forth its utmost efforts and draining the country of men available for service against the insurgents. It is said the insurgents are likely soon to receive recognition as belligerents from some republic of South or Central America and it is implied that this would be of material advantage to them. The value of such recognition depends a great deal upon the character on the power according to it, so that coming from the source indicated it could hardly be of any benefit to the insurgent cause. The men who are fighting for the liberation of Cuba from Spanish domination are certainly showing themselves to be able, resourceful and courageous and are gaining for their cause increasing attention and sympathy from all who recognize justice.

It is safe to credit almost every American city with a good share of American horse sense. Red-mouthed agitators crop up but they represent nothing. They tried to make people think that Omaha would be the scene of pitched battles between opposing police forces. A little apprehension was aroused, but it was proved to be wholly unnecessary as the critical day passed as quietly as a New York Sunday.

"Tammany reformed," did somebody say? The meeting of sachems shows that Hugh Grant and his gang still control the machine, and that the new blood of which so much was expected, is not apparent. New York still has Tammany, the same old Tammany, the same wicked Tammany, to fight at every step.

If our democratic friends can get any satisfaction out of imagining that they can elect a president next year pray let them do so. It will injure nobody. The voters have made up their minds that no democrat will occupy the president's chair again for a long time to come, if ever.

There is a fight against the law requiring the raising of flags on private school houses in Illinois. Lutherans object to it on principle, saying that if the state uses its authority in one instance it may in another. Very true, perhaps, and still for the sake of Old Glory, a few scruples might well be waved.

Many people find it not only easy but natural, to love Hon. Theodore Roosevelt for the enemies he is making.

Every change in the method of doing business in a government office isn't a reform; not by a jug full.

If Hoke Smith keeps on he will soon be filing a claim to being the original gold bug.

WHAT IS LOVE?

H. H. Boyesen Analyses It from His Own Point of View.

Love is, to my mind, nothing but an enthusiastic congeniality of soul. It is a profound sense of a pervasive harmony of being, writes H. H. Boyesen. Its first symptoms is not a physical attraction, but a delicious realization, on the part of each, of a strange consonance of nature. More than half its joy consists in the feeling of being completely understood in one's noblest potentialities. The lover is for the time what his beloved believes him to be; and she is what he believes her to be. What happy audacity of speech, what glorious heights of feeling, what rare flashes of insight, as the two chords go sounding together, in melodious embrace, reveling in each other's eloquence, charm, and beauty! To be thus tuned up an octave above one's ordinary self, to feel the resonance of one's speech in a noble woman's soul, to receive one's thought back enriched and beautified by having passed through her mind, is about the highest beatitude which earth has to offer. And the chances of it will be infinitely multiplied when mind and character, in the more exclusive sense, shall not be the rare attributes of a few exceptional women. A soul-relation can exist only where souls exist and have shed their embryonic swappings, having assumed their permanent type and quality. That by no means precludes growth, but rather insures it, and in a way points its direction.

A Hero of Chitral.

An Indian hero, whose identity people are never tired of discussing, is the officer, who, being refused leave to go with the Chitral expedition, obtained five days' leave to go shooting. He entrained to a point as near the operations as the railway would carry him, and then, being unable to obtain a horse, set out on march. Equipped with a bottle of gin and a huge sausage as his only rations, he plodded the weary miles over rough ground cheerfully. He reached the head of the column just as the charge was about to be made on the Malakand pass. He was in time to join the head of the storming column, and was in the first three on the summit. When the battle was over he had to eschew the camp, and the rest awaited the fighting line, and had to make his way back as best he might to a point where the railway would take him up. I heard Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood say that this officer is a full colonel. He went into action as a common soldier, tearing the straps of his Kharka uniform that his rank might not be discovered. For, as Sir Evelyn remarked, with a humorous twinkle in his eye, if he had been discovered he would have been put under arrest.—Tit-Bits.

TWO BEGGARS OF PARIS.

An Old Woman Who Died of Starvation Had Over 30,000 Francs.

People in Paris have been deceived recently by two remarkable beggars. One was an old widow of over 80. She had been living in a house in the Rue du Texel, upon the charity of the other lodgers. She was an object of pity, this distressed, yet ladylike and gentle old woman, and the little purse made up for her each week was contributed to gladly by those who were under the same roof with her. Her room remained locked for over forty-eight hours and the police were called in. The old woman lay upon her bed. A doctor was called. He said she was dead, and an examination indicated that the cause was starvation. There seemed to be nothing worth making an inventory of, but the police investigated perfunctorily and under a heap of rubbish they found 3,500 francs in large bank notes. A more careful search revealed in the straw of her bed a heap of bonds and other securities to the value of 30,000 francs. The "poor" old woman's heirs are being sought for, but there is not the faintest clue to them.

A clever swindler presented himself in Paris under the guise of a deaf mute. He was first noticed by the police while conducting an energetic begging campaign from house to house. Upon being arrested he went into an energetic pantomime, to which the officers paid little attention. In the police station he suddenly lost his infirmity and uttered a torrent of invective against the police. It was afterwards found out that, speaking five languages, he had plied his trade in all the countries of Europe and with remarkable success. His method of operation was to visit only the houses of the wealthy and to strike for large sums. In Paris his operations netted him not less than fifty francs a day. He would first write to the families he intended to visit. They were always of the foreign colony. The letters would detail his pitiable state. They were well written and seemed to have the impress of truth upon them. A few days later he would call, and, contriving to be seen by master or mistress, would show a host of certificates of physicians, mayors of cities and commissaries of police in proof of what he had written. The interviews with these wealthy people were naturally had upon paper, and the answers to the questions put to him would be so beautifully and carefully written that they would seldom fail to win the sum sought. This young man—Gustav Remshager—is now held by the police, and his conviction is practically assured.

TRIED TO KILL VICTORIA.

Six Attempts Have Been Made on the British Queen's Life.

Since her Majesty came to the throne she has been the subject of six attacks, but only three of them can be described as attempts on her life. The first attack on the Queen occurred on Constitution Hill, on June 10, 1840, soon after her marriage, the assailant being a pot boy named Edward Oxford. Two years later, on May 30, 1842, John Francis fired at the Queen when within a few feet of her carriage. This outrage also took place on Constitution Hill. In July of the same year a crack-brained lad named Bean leveled a loaded pistol at her Majesty, who was driving from Buckingham Palace to the Chapel Royal, St. James, but the weapon missed fire. In May, 1850, Robert Pate, an lieutenant in the Hussars, as the royal carriage was emerging from the Duke of Cambridge's gate, struck the Queen with a stick, leaving a mark on her cheek and crushing her bonnet. In February, 1872, a youth named Arthur O'Connor presented an old and unloaded pistol at her Majesty as she was entering Buckingham Palace, and on March 2, 1882, a man named Roderick Maclean deliberately fired at the Queen as she was driving from Windsor Station to the castle, but no damage was done.

Houses Swept Away by the River.

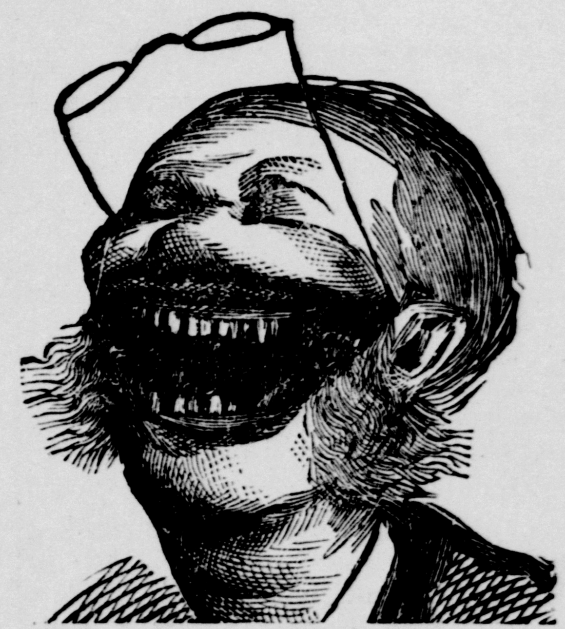

Sioux City, Iowa, Aug. 2.—A number of houses and many acres of land on the Nebraska side of the Missouri river, opposite this city, have been tumbling into the current for the last twenty-four hours. The loss has already amounted to several thousand dollars and will be much larger unless the caving can be stopped at once. It is supposed the current has been deflected by the Short Line bridge improvements.

AIRY FAIRY ELLEN AGAIN IN TROUBLE

MRS. SHAFER, OF ORFORDVILLE, UNDER ARREST.

Once More They Charge Her With Selling Liquor Contrary To The Law Regulating The Traffic—The Cotton Factory Coal Throwing In Court—Water Case Adjourned.

History has repeated itself, and quiet, retiring, ladylike, Ellen Shafer, managing editress of the Travelers, Rest at Orfordville, is again under arrest.

Ellen is purveyor to the wants of the traveling public, as the name posted over the door of her place would indicate. The Travelers Rest is an "inn, tavern or public hotel"—with nobody barred. Occasionally, it is said, someone would stop at Ellen's place and demand, with other refreshments, a glass of beer. In such cases, it is held, Ellen has been more accommodating than the law allows, for no license to traffic in intoxicating liquor ornaments the walls of the hotel.

Stories have been told about her a good many times and have been often repeated in court, but generally the witnesses are unable to tell what they dampened their throats with. At the last election Orfordville was carried for license and several took out permits at once, but Ellen was not of them. It is said that these dealers threatened to protect themselves by "keeping cases" on Ellen, but that may or may not be true.

Lack of License Made No Difference. At any rate it was alleged that Ellen did not let the fact that she had no license interfere with her kindness to her guests and occasionally a cork was pulled contrary to the excise regulation. On Wednesday last these stories took tangible form and one of the supervisors of the town went before Justice George Helmboldt and signed a complaint. Ellen was arrested and taken before the court where she pleaded not guilty and the case was adjourned until August 7 when her alleged dealings in liquors will be investigated by the authorities. District Attorney Jackson was this morning notified of the prosecution; for although it is being carried on by the town authorities it is necessary to inform the guardian of the county's legal interests of all such cases begun within the county. Ellen has been tried several times in Janesville, with varying success and it is now proposed to see what the outcome of a case would be when tried by the denizens of her native heath.

That Coal Throwing Row. The fight in which Simon Macron, an employe of the Cotton Mill Company, received a gash in the head will be investigated in the municipal court on August 5, to which day the case was adjourned when it came up before Judge Phelps this morning. Macron says John Joyce hit him with a piece of coal, and a warrant charging Joyce with assault and battery was served by Officer Cochrane this morning. The adjournment followed Joyce's plea of not guilty. Joyce says that Macron was chasing him with a knife and that he threw the coal in self defense.

The case of the State against Emil Shumacher, who is charged with interfering with the Monterey water power was set for today but by consent of the parties, Judge Phelps adjourned the case until August 19. District Attorney Jackson appeared for the state and John V. Norcross for the defendant.

George Wood was lodged in jail by Officer Hogan last night, charged with peeping from a barn roof into Park Hotel sleeping rooms.

TRIBUTE TO HON. ANDREW BARLASS

Colonel Smith Speaks Appreciative Words of Him in Fond du Lac Commonwealth says: "Hon. Andrew Barlass, a wealthy farmer of Rock county, received a kick from a horse on Friday evening which caused instant death. It was a strange ending of an eventful life. Mr. Barlass settled in Rock county fifty three years ago, entered some land not far from Janesville and his sturdy Scotch thrift and rugged honesty brought him prominently before the people of the county, and three times he was called to serve his republican friends in the legislature. He was one of the most successful farmers in the state, and it peculiarly regrettable that a life made up of so many struggles and triumphs should go out so suddenly under such violent circumstances."

COLORED MEN GET WORK HERE Some of the Southern Delegation Abandon Their Race Track Wanderings.

Janesville's colored population has been increased within the last two weeks by a number of gentlemen who laid down the "scraper" and "bandages" and gave up the pail of the "horse swipe" to make the Bower City their home. They came here with the races, but they decided to stay.

"Th' best w'at yoa get wen yoa get follerin' them horses am de worst ob it," explained one of them. "The ohnah, he frows de gaff into yah, an' de driver he calls yah a 'ripskillion' an' udder names. Dis niggah aint a gwine foh to haul his freight about wiv dat aggregashun no mah. He's gwine foh to wolk wiv 'is mits. Dats right, boss. See?"

FATAL COLT RIDE OF A HIRED MAN

E. HUBBARD THROWN AGAINST A TREE AND MAY DIE.

Several Ribs Broken—Miss Dann Knocked Down By a Swinging Door—William Smith Recovering From His Injuries—Boy's Arm Broken at Crystal Springs.

Ervin Hubbard, a hired man on the farm of I. H. Brink is in a critical condition and may not recover. He went to the pasture to bring up horses and tried to ride a frisky colt. He was thrown violently against a tree and his wrist and several ribs broken.

Miss Dann was the victim of a different kind of an accident. The swinging door at the entrance of the Baker Block knocked her down and disabled her.

William Smith who was hurt so badly in the Jug Prairie tornado is better and may survive.

During the Evansville picnic at Crystal Springs Walter Winslip fell and broke his arm in the place where it was broken a month or two ago.

Accidents are not the only thing discussed in Evansville, however. Barbours have concluded to close on Sunday. Colonel Hall sold his big elephant, Empress, to Harris' Nickle Plate Shows for $2,000; thieves stole thirty feet of the old circus man's fence, and he offers a $20 reward; F. Johnson threshed forty acres of oats, averaging fifty bushels to the acre, and solemn warning is given by a local paper that clergymen must no longer kiss pretty brides.

The boy was suffering from a broken leg and had been confined to the house for some time when the disease attacked him.

'ALL SOULS' The Peoples Church. How Is This? Whittier's Creed. "Truth is one; And in all the lands beneath the sun; Whose bath eyes to see may see The token of its unity. No scroll of creed its fitness wraps We trace it not by smouldering maps— Free as the sun and air it is, Of latitudes and boundaries, In Vedic verse, in dull Koran Are messages of good to man. Wherever through the ages rise The altars of self-sacrifice, Where love its arms have opened wide, Or man for man has calmly died, I see the same white wings outspread, That hovered o'er the master's head." VICTOR E. SOUTHWORTH, Pastor.

The Scorned Scorned.

A skeptic, engaged in a religious discussion with a country pastor, thought to end the whole matter by declaring that there was no such place as Heaven, and that, for his part, he believed in metempsychosis.

"You believe, then," said the pastor, "that your soul may enter the body of a beast after your death?"

"Certainly."

"And you expect to feel quite at home, I suppose?"

Thereupon the skeptic decided that the last word was with his antagonist.

The Boy Had an Idea.

The kid had smashed his father's shaving mug and done sundry other damage, when his mother discovered him.

"Oh, Freddy!" she exclaimed, horrified; "what will your papa say when he comes home and sees what you have done?"

"Well, mamma," he replied, with a half smile, "I don't think I would like to repeat it before you."—Puck.

But He Was.

The boy stood on the burning deck,
It got hotter every minute;
He mopped his brow and simply said:
"I wish I wasn't in it."

—Truth.

PATCHED BLOOMERS.

If she will wear trousers she will have to accept the consequences.—Judge.

Time for Pause.

Epicurus—What's the matter, old fellow? I never see you dining at Pot-roast's any more. Isn't everything all right? Isn't the cooking just as good; aren't the prices just as reasonable as they always were?

Dyspepticus—Oh, yes, there's nothing the matter with them; but between me and you, I draw the line at waiters carrying the knives and forks over their ears like pens.—Truth.

A Sure Sign.

Clara—I am sure George loves me and will make me his wife.

Jennie—Has he proposed?

"He hasn't exactly proposed, but I know he is going to. There is one thing that convinces me of it."

"What is that?"

"His antipathy to dear mamma."—Texas Siftings.

She Had Told That Fib Already.

Matrimonial Agent—Just one thing more—how old are you?

Miss Singler—Twenty-five years.

Agent—Oh, well, you can easily say you are five years younger.

Miss Singler—Oh, I've done that already.—San Francisco Call.

Strong Brains.

A mild bit of repartee is reported as having occurred between the poet Saxe and Oliver Wendell Holmes. They were talking about brain fever, when Mr. Saxe remarked:

"I once had a severe attack of brain fever myself."

"How could you have brain fever?" asked Dr. Holmes, smiling. "It is only strong brains that have brain fever."

"How did you find that out?" asked Saxe.—Golden Days.

A Small Demand.

Lady—If I were a big, healthy man like you I'd be ashamed to beg! Why don't you go to work.

Wearly Wraggles—I would work, lady, but I can't get anything to do at my trade.

Lady—Well, that is hard, poor fellow? What is your trade?

Ground for Disbelief.

Mrs. Mullins (reading the newspaper)—A Philadelphia man rejoices in the name of Medycynv Garczynskiogo.

Mr. Mullins—I don't believe it.

"You don't believe that is his right name?"

"No, I don't believe he rejoices in it."—Life.

Knew His Business.

Wife—You told that gentleman you'd charge by the day for movin' his furniture. Why don't you charge by the load, like you used to?

Husband (a furniture mover)—That new horse is balky.—N. Y. Weekly.

Another Situation Altogether.

"That man causes me no end of annoyance over a bill."

"Why don't you sue him and collect it?"

"Collect it? He's trying to do that!"—Chicago Record.

Eat and Be Happy!

Now you can do this who has dyspepsia. Even a small meal, eaten with relish, inflicts more or less torture upon the wretched victim of indigestion. But why allow one's self to be thus victimized when success in the shape of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters can be summoned? If you are going to any locality—a remote country farm house, or new settlement, for instance, where it is not readily procurable, provide yourself in advance with an adequate supply. An unaccustomed diet is very apt to produce dyspeptic qualms, so is bread eaten aboard ship and the eating of acid fruits. Forestal further encroachment of the complaint with this superb and genial corrective and preventive. Heartburn, sour eructations, flatulency, constipation, malaria, rheumatism, and money trouble promptly succumb to the onset of this warship of bodily ailments and restore the vigor.

THE HONEST SHAKERS AND THEIR CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

The shopkeeper who cheats us by lying with regard to the quality of his goods, and the grocer or the butcher who gives us short weights, is a thief. However, their knavery touches nothing but our pocketbook. There is another widespread form of misrepresentation of a far more dangerous and villainous character.

We refer to the false statements and worthless guarantees that frequently accompany medicines. To guarantee a medicine to cure is to brand it as a quack product. If we can guarantee to cure disease, then we can guarantee everlasting life, for in a large majority of cases people die of disease, the proportion of violent or accidental deaths being very small.

The Shakers have always been known as most upright and honorable people, and their success in the manufacture of medicines has also been well known. It is therefore, not surprising to find them pursuing a very original and novel plan for the introduction of their remedy for dyspepsia.

These God fearing people, whose motto has always been "Try all things and hold fast that which is good," have put upon the market ten cent sample bottles of their product, sufficient to give it a trial.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is so prompt in its action that for the trivial sum of ten cents a person can usually determine as to whether or not it meets the requirements of his case. There are forms of dyspepsia which it will help, but these are very rare. In most cases the first dose relieves all distress, and an increase of appetite at once follows.

All druggists have it and the next time you are troubled with indigestion send out and try this popular and successful product. It represents nearly a hundred years of patient investigation and study.

Not of the preparations of coloring matter and essential oils so often sold under the name of rootbeer, but of the purest, most delicious, health-giving beverage possible to produce. One gallon of Hires' is worth ten of the counterfeit kind. Suppose an imitation extract costs five cents less than the genuine Hires; the same amount of sugar and trouble is required; you save one cent a gallon, and get an unhealthy imitation in the end. Ask for Hires and get it.

WILLIMANTIC STAR THREAD

Is pre-eminently the best spool cotton for hand sewing or machine sewing. It is the strongest thread made; it is free from knots, kinks, flaws, or ravel; is always uniform in quality, thickness and strength. It never breaks itself or breaks the needle; never puckers the seams or throws the tension out of order. It costs no more than poorer kinds of thread. Ask your dealer for it.

Send 2c. and receive 6 spools of thread (any color or number), together with 4 bobbins for your machine, (ready wound) and an instructive book on thread and sewing. Free.
